To Our Valued Agency Partners,

You are essential to Chubb. In this unique business environment, in which most of us are working remotely, we commit to remain active in your daily transactions and try to make your job a little easier. Below is a brief overview of Chubb's business segments and your key contact person for each.

Small Commercial

The Chubb Marketplace makes quoting, issuing, and servicing your small business accounts easy, giving you more time to service your clients. Should a need arise, please go to @chubb to sign in to Marketplace and obtain a quote. If you have any questions regarding Chubb Marketplace, please contact (name) at (email) or (phone).

Commercial Insurance

Chubb underwriters are still working hard to quote your new business submissions and provide you with your renewal quotes. Please contact (name) at (email) or (phone) with submission or renewal questions. If you have any questions regarding who your Chubb Middle Market underwriter is, please go to (regional microsite link) for your local branch contact sheet.

Large Commercial Insurance

Chubb underwriters remain actively engaged and ready to support your business needs. Please continue to submit any renewal or new business requests through the standard Chubb submission email channel. If preferred, submissions can be sent directly to your local Chubb underwriting contact. Your local Major Account segment leader, (name), at (email) or (phone), is also available to address any needs that may arise.

Financial Lines

Chubb's Financial Lines' underwriters are committed to maintaining the service you've come to expect when meeting the management liability, cyber, professional liability, and transactional risk insurance needs of your clients. Our tailored solutions are designed to provide the protection your clients need in today's business climate. If you have any questions relating to Financial Lines' coverage solutions, please contact (name) at (email) or (phone).

Personal Risk Services

Whether your client has purchased a new house or has lived there for a few years, we understand that care and effort it takes to turn your house into their homes. And we want to make sure that your agency knows we are always here to help protect and make sure the client feels at home. If you need any assistance with Personal Risk Services, please contact (name) at (email) or (phone).

Reporting Claims

You and your clients can continue to report claims through available digital channels and over the phone. We have dedicated representatives available 24/7. You can view claim reporting options here.

We consider it our obligation to not just maintain but elevate our services during times when they are needed most. So, if there is anything on your desk that needs immediate attention, please reach out. Always feel free to contact (name) at (email) or (phone) if you cannot reach the individuals above for whatever reason. Underwriters will also be contacting you in regular fashion to discuss renewals and new business submissions.

We are monitoring new developments so that we can quickly adapt and continue to provide the best possible service experience to you and your clients. As always, thanks for the trust you place in Chubb.
