J.J. Keller's New COVID-19 Action Plan for the Workplace Online Training

J.J. Keller, our partner for online training for our policyholders, is launching a new training program – COVID-19 Action Plan for the Workplace. This training is available at no charge to policyholders of a member company of the Utica National Insurance Group.

About This Program

COVID-19: Action Plan for the Workplace is designed to help employers and managers prepare and respond to exposure and illness caused by COVID-19. It and covers OSHA, FMLA and ADA regulations.

Organizational plans that take into account policies and procedures, human resources matters, and supply and production issues can help companies and employees to prepare for the health pandemic. Being prepared, yet flexible enough to adapt to an ever-changing situation, supports an entire organization.

After completing this course, learners will be able to:

- Address ways to develop an emergency action plan for the COVID-19 outbreak.
- Explain ways to communicate critical information to employees.
- Identify regulatory issues related to employee rights and other considerations.
- List actions a business can take to minimize business disruptions.
